

SIDNEY and SHERRIE BECKSTEAD

Co-owners of Liljenquist & Beckstead Jewelers, the Becksteads have focused their philanthropy on the Georgetown Lombardi Nina Hyde Breast Cancer Research Center, where Sherrie serves on the executive committee, and the Trust for the National Mall. Sherrie is a member of the Trust's National Advisory Council and in December, the couple announced the launch of the Lockkeeper's Collection, a limited-edition jewelry line benefitting the nonprofit partner of the National Park Service.
