Reserve Your Advertising Space by October 31 for the 2023 Experience Ocean City

The 2023 Experience Ocean City is the Official Vacation Planning publication for Ocean City, and your business is an important piece of the puzzle that makes the Ocean City Experience unique for our guests ... that is why OCMD is such an awesome place to visit!!

Over 175,000 copies are printed annually and distributed to prospective vacationers throughout the region and Canada via direct (bulk) mail and hundreds of AAA offices and welcome centers. In addition, thousands are distributed at trade & travel shows throughout the year. It's also readily available for visitors in a digital format to flip through & view online.

We invite you to take advantage of all this publication has to offer.

To reserve your ad space, email Olive Mawyer or call 410-213-0144 x106

Please Complete the 2023 Legislative Advocacy Survey by November 4

The Greater Ocean City Chamber of Commerce has an active Government Affairs Committee, along with a professional lobbyist who works on our behalf in Annapolis. We meet weekly during session to discuss upcoming bills. We are seeking membership's feedback on important issues before we formulate a legislative agenda. Kindly take a few minutes to complete the survey by Friday, November 4, 2022.

On Election Day, Vote YES for Question A: Local Referendum by Petition Regarding Bond Issuances for Worcester County Sports Complex

The purpose of this question on the ballot is to determine whether the Worcester County Commissioners may finance a portion of the costs of designing & constructing a Worcester County Sports Complex by issuing a bond.
