CRISIS IN THE UKRAINE - BISHOP'S APPEAL

Bishop Marray requests donations for the on-going efforts for the crisis in the war-torn Ukraine. Your immediate support will help Episcopal Relief & Development and other Anglican partners provide humanitarian assistance to people fleeing the violence in the Ukraine.

Bishop Mark Edington, Bishop of The Convocation of Episcopal Churches in Europe gave the House of Bishops meeting at Camp Allen, Texas, an update on the crisis. Bishop Edington reported on the major humanitarian crisis because of the ongoing invasion of Ukraine. He articulated the remarkable work done by our Churches in Europe and the invaluable support of Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD). Bishop Mark encourages donations be sent to ERD through individual dioceses for support to the churches in Europe.

Your gift will help provide cash, food, blankets, hygiene supplies and other needed assistance to families from Ukraine.

Please forward donations via check to: Diocese of Easton, 314 North Street, Easton, MD 21601 Memo: Ukraine.

Online donations can be made by clicking HERE

Please continue to pray for an end to this war and for our sisters and brothers on the frontline of this crisis.

Every blessing,
Bishop San

Message from Bishop Mark Edington, Bishop in Charge of the Convocation of Episcopal Churches in Europe

This is a transcript of a message to the Episcopal Church in Colorado. It has been copied from their March 23, 2022 newsletter which was shared by The Rev. Penny Morrow.

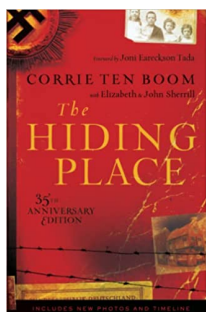

Hello, Episcopal Church in Colorado. I'm really thankful that Bishop Kym has invited me to say a few words to you from your brothers and sisters of the Episcopal Church in Europe. I'm Mark Edington. I'm the Bishop in charge of the Convocation of Episcopal Churches in Europe. 21 congregations of our church spread out across Europe from Paris in the West where our cathedral is to Tbilisi in Georgia in the East.

Bishop Kym asked me to say a few words to you about the situation that's now unfolding in Ukraine. It is a disaster. There's no two ways about it. There are now 10 million Ukrainians who have fled from their homes and about four million of them are expected to be coming into Europe. The part of the Europe that we serve, that your church serves. That number actually may be a little low. We have no way of knowing.

Our April Book is The Hiding Place by Corrie Ten Boom which we will discuss on Monday, April 24 at 7pm via Zoom. It is an autobiographical memoir by Corrie Ten Boom, a devoutly religious woman who lived in the Holland city of Haarlem during the Nazi occupation. Compelled by her unshakeable Christian morality, she defied tyranny to rescue her Jewish neighbors who faced annihilation during the Holocaust. She was ultimately caught and sent to the notorious Ravensbruck death camp, where she witnessed scenes of unimaginable cruelty. In the camp, it was Corrie's bedrock faith in the glory of God that sustained her. She discovered that love was a far more powerful force than hate—for God's love was truly unconquerable.

23rd Annual Native Plant Sale: Pre Sale Happening Now!

Assateague Coastal Trust's highly anticipated event of the year, the 23rd Annual Native Plant Sale will be held at their office location at 10959 Worcester Hwy. in Berlin on Saturday, May 7th from 8 am – 1 pm.

Our backyard gardens are more than just hobby plots. Carefully planned and cared for, they are critical to the survival of pollinators species, which in turn are critical to the entire ecosystem! Creating a new a garden or adding to an existing garden can also lend to buffer areas, a particularly important concept in our watershed as buffers can reduce land surface runoff and filter pollutants before they enter our waterways.

Visit the plant sale store at ActForBays.org/PlantSale to view a wide selection of native sun and shade plants. New for this year, Assateague Coastal Trust is offering a few native grasses and sedges for those looking to ascent their property. Plenty of Herbs and Veggies grown by local organic farmer Dave Wiley of Herbs, Spice, and Everything Nice are also available. To view the full inventory, visit the online store at ActForBays.org/PlantSale.

Online orders are strongly encouraged to ensure you get everything you need for this year's spring gardens!

Not sure what to put in the ground this year, need some gardening and ground prep tips? Email Billy Weiland at billy@actforbays.org with questions and we'd be happy to help you get started.
