

St. Paul's by-the-Sea

Weekly news & updates

June 24, 2022

This Sunday, at announcement time, Andy Diaz will tell us about his recent experience at the Hispanic Lay Leadership Conference hosted by the Episcopal Diocese of Texas in Houston.

Cheryl Nottingham Becomes President of Maryland's Healthcare Financial Management Association

Cheryl Nottingham, vice president of finance/CFO for Atlantic General Hospital and Health System, assumed the role of president of the Maryland chapter of the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA) on June 1.

Nottingham has been CFO at Atlantic General since 1998. She graduated from the University of Missouri-Kansas City with a Bachelor of Science in accounting and earned her Master of Business Administration in healthcare administration and organizational leadership from Wilmington University.

Nottingham has been a member of HFMA since 1993 and became an HFMA Fellow in 2011. She is the eighth woman president of HFMA Maryland Chapter in its 58-year history. HFMA Maryland Chapter's mission is to facilitate experiences – both in-person and digitally – that support educational and relationship development across all providers, payers, regulatory bodies, vendors/consultants, and other stakeholders across the state.

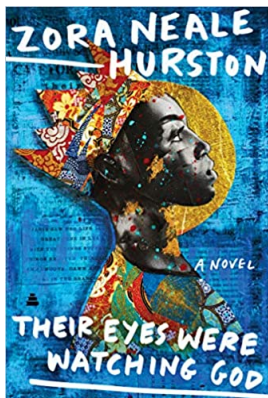

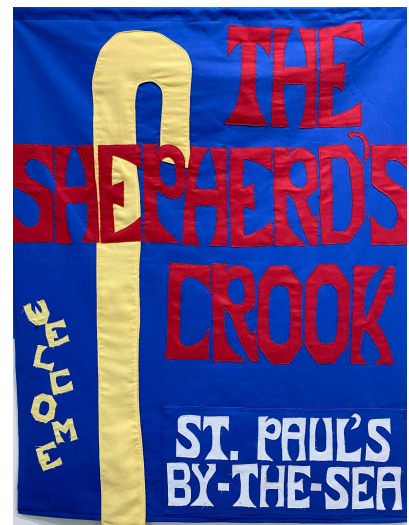

Joanna Cross Returns to St. Paul's by-the-Sea

Soprano, Joanna Cross will sing during the service next Sunday, July 3rd. Make plans to attend as you will not want to miss this special performance.

New Summer Schedule

Beginning in July, and continuing through Labor Day, Shepherd's Crook will be closed on Saturdays. This decision was not made lightly and addresses many of the obstacles this ministry has been facing recently. 1. Due to inflation and the influx of the J1 students, what we are spending every week has doubled. 2. Traffic issues for the volunteers on Saturdays are just getting worse as the summer progresses. 3. Staffing Saturdays in the summer has always been an issue but is even worse this summer.

New Schedule: Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays 10am-Noon.

SPBTS Book Club

At our most recent meeting, we had a spirited discussion of The Paris Library by Janet Skeslien Charles. All agreed that it must've been really difficult to experience life during WWII. It's amazing to read books of courage - and about women of courage.

One of the books referred to in The Paris Library is Their Eyes Were Watching God by Zora Neale Hurston, so we decided to read that next. I just ordered it from Betterworldbooks.com for $4.14

We're taking the summer off, so our next meeting will be Monday, September 19 via Zoom at 7pm. One of our members is reading a book about the 60's, and she'll let us know if we should put that on the list!

If you like to read and talk about books, please join us. Everyone is welcome.

Memorial Brick Sale!

Memorial bricks are again being offered for sale. Our brick 'garden' is located at the Baltimore Avenue entrance to the Fellowship Commons.

Bricks are available in two sizes: 8x8 (priced at $500 each) and 4 x 8 (priced at $250 each). Wording is of your choice, and graphics are available.

If you are interested in ordering a brick to honor or remember a beloved one, click here to download a brick form. You can also contact Debbie Shuster at 410-213-9658 or ocshu@comcast.net, or email Don at the church office, office@stpaulsbythesea.net, and we can forward the order form to you.

We need to sell 6 bricks to place an order so if you have the opportunity, please get the word out to friends and family.
