Rev. Charlie Osberger's Installation

Debbie and I had the privilege of attending Rev. Charlie Osberger's installation as Canon, Honorary Cause, by Bishop Santosh Marray on September 12 at Trinity Cathedral in Easton. In his sermon, Bishop San recognized Charlie for his 38 years leadership as Rector of Old Wye Parish and his service to the Diocese during the episcopate of 5 bishops.

Charlie was presented with a full size cut out of Elton John as a gift. A reception in Miller Hall followed. Charlie will be joining us on Christmas Eve to celebrate Holy

On the Passing of Queen Elizabeth II

On Thursday, September 8th the world received the news of the passing of Queen Elizabeth II, queen and monarch of the United Kingdom. Queen Elizabeth II was the titular (symbolic) head of the Anglican/Episcopal Church for the last 70 years and as such the church mourns its lay leader.

The period of mourning set by Buckingham Palace (ten days) is expected to end with her funeral service on Monday, September 19th. Many across the world will be viewing this historic and monumental celebration of life. Together with those around the world grieving, we honor a life well lived, a faithful and loyal servant of the church, country and world. The Diocese of Easton invites you to use the following Collect during services this weekend. For additional information or resources visit The Church of England's website.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, in whose hands are the living and the dead: We give you thanks for all your servants, especially Queen Elizabeth II, who was an inspiration of life-long and dedicated service. Grant to all who now mourn and are bereaved a sure confidence in your fatherly care, that, casting all our grief on you, we may know the consolation of your love. Amen.
